

NCBC Washington DC & Vicinity,

Annual Session

Present' It's

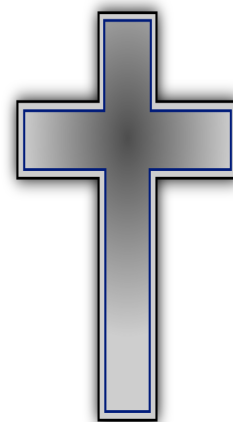

2019 School for Pastors

May 13– May 17, 2019

G. James Gholson Middle School

6:30 pm -9:30 pm

900 Nalley Rd., Landover, MD

Join Pastor Be Louis Colleton as He takes an in debt look at how Pastors are to care for themselves as they care for their congregation.

Our Focus this year will be on pastors caring for “Oneself “and caring for the disciples of Christ who make up his/her congregation. Pastors face challenges each day in ministering to the flock, often the pastor over looks caring for the One in the mirror. In caring for pastors while they are caring for the flock some questions must be addressed. Here are some leading questions.

1. Who does the pastor (in confidentiality) share his/her struggles with in times of need?
2. What organizations or groups are beneficial to pastors and how are they beneficial?
3. How can we foster pastor becoming healthier in 2019?
4. Should pastors have a mentor if so what are the benefits?
5. Other than God in the spiritual realm who does the pastor turn to in difficult cases in his/her church?
6. Finally, let us discuss some best practiced ways to improve our Bible Study Participation and having more disciples reading the Bible Daily.

Please Join us and your Ministerial Staff is also invited to attend