AM I A CREDIBLE MESSENGER?

“Are you listening to me? Really listening?”

Matthew 11:15 Message Bible

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This interactive solution focused session will focus effective communication while serving others, growing in faith to engage our next generation of children and youth. Participates will examine how they move and operate according the principles outlined in the Bible. In today’s society our youth are faced with bullies, image issues, academics pressure, peer pressure, athletic pressure, social media status, mental health, substance abuse, juvenile delinquency, as well as exploring risky behaviors which include sex. As leaders and parents we are responsible for training, building and equipping them with the right tools based on the foundation of biblical principle based on truth, love and grace.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Participates will:

- rate their current methods of teaching and engagement
- explore social concerns that impact our children and youth
- examine the Plan-do-check-act (adjust) Procedure

SYLLABUS

- Survey Says...
